JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TAXATION.

Taxation stalks up and down all the land with hungry, ravening strides, like some famished beast of prey, and commits its ravages on every substance save that which is richest. It pursues every footstep, and haunts all the humble and obscure ways and wants of the people. It knows no sleep, no rest from weariness or surfeit.—Its hard, tithing hands are laid on every moment of life's journey—from the cradle of the children born to toil, and from toiling parents, to their graves in the twilight of old age. There is no sign on the door posts of the poor to guard away the angel of extortion from their homes. The tax gatherer is as ever present as the breath of pestilence when cities and nations "wail its stroke." He goes with the husband to the counter of the merchant, and there gathers in for the bond holder on every purchase made for the necessity of a family. The shirtings, the flannels, the calicos, the muslins, the delaines, the bonnets, the boots the shoes, the thread, the buttons, the needles, the pins, the hooks and eyes, and eyelets, have all been taxed from forty to two hundred per cent., and the amount paid upon them has been put in their place for the consumer finally to pay. The collector of revenue walks by the side of the farmer in his daily labor and reaps a golden income for holders of a spurious debt, from the plow share, the hoe, the scythe, the sickle the reaping machine and mower, the wrought iron finish of the wagon, the chains, the clasps, the buckles, and the bridle bits of the harness, the iron teeth of the harrow, the many tined forks, the grain shovels, and the shoes on horses' feet. He goes into the shop of the mechanic, and puts a two-fold tariff price on the saws, the augers, the knives, and the planes, the anvils, the hammers, and the tongs, and all the utensils of those who work in wood and brass and iron. He sits down at meal time with the laborer at his table, and points out to him that his knife and fork, and his unpretending plates have cost him double, because of the bondholder's demands upon them before they can come into use. The coffee, the sugar, and the tea at this frugal board have paid their twenty-five to fifty per cent. to the government, and the very salt that savors the bread and meat of the people, and the coal which warms their humble abodes, are enhanced in their prices, by the present system of tariff taxation from 100 to 125 per cent. over their real intrinsic value. Water itself, the flowing fountains of life, without which human nature sinks and dies is not free.

The pump with its machinery; the windlass with its chains that control the wells, and the buckets which come and go from the springs, and the cups from which thirst is at last quenched, all stand their levy of an exorbitant per cent. Nor is this insatiable system any respecter of persons after it leaves and passes by the rich and the exalted. The soldier who has left an arm on the field of battle has no exemption in behalf of the hand which yet remains. It toils as best it can to be ready for the demands of the tax gatherer, while the other lies perishing in the ground far away where swept the stormy and headlong charge under the bright folds of the blessed flag.—The pallid and stricken widow in her lonely tenement of sorrow and bereavement knows not the abatement of one farthing on the part of the revenue official of the laws of Congress, because of her irreparable sacrifice of him who made life warm and beautiful to her, but who now sleeps in some distant spot with his cherished face turned upward to the flowers that bloom over him. The child bereft of a father's guiding and sustaining care by the fierce havoc of war finds no privilege off its earnings or possessions against the grasp of taxation. The veteran of the entire conflict, who has returned to finish the journey of life upon one leg, pays tribute to the government and to the owner of exempted bonds on the very crutches that bear him in pain along our streets.

And when the citizen of this ill governed land, whether he has been a soldier in the field or a laborer at home, passes away from this scene of tread mill slavery, he invokes in vain the shelter of the tomb. Between the chamber that was darkened for the closing moments and quiet cemetery on the hills, his unburied remains are made to pay tribute for the brief passage. The sheet that covers him up for his long sleep, and the coffin and the screw-driver which fastened down the lid over the still, cold face, leave all paid taxes which now fall on the dead within. And when all is over, and friends turn away and leave him alone for ever in his dark, narrow bed, the officer of the revenue still plies his trade in the midst of the broken household. The letters of administration, the bond, the inventory, the bill of sale, the report, all pay toll to privileged wealth as the estate proceeds to settlement. The tombstone, if one is raised, concludes the dismal drama by paying a heavy tax for the privilege of keeping watch as a loving memorial over the dust that reposes below.—Extract from a speech by Hon. D. W. Voorhees of Indiana.

That body of Radical rascals now sitting in the Capital building at Washington, under the name of Congress, has been playing the devil with the public domain. They have given away to railroad companies alone a tract of land seven times as large as the State of Ohio, or one hundred and eighty-two millions of acres, and have bills before them for the giving away of four hundred millions of acres more, about two thirds of all the arable public lands yet belonging to the nation. Pretty soon Radical rascality will leave the country without a foot of land it can call its own, and all bestowed recklessly and wastefully upon irresponsible railroad companies.—Bellefonte (Pa.) Watchman.

HARD ON HOWARD.—General Howard the Radical Pecksniff, has thus far been most unmercifully overhauled by the Wood Committee of Investigation. Although that Committee is composed of a majority of the political friends of the accused, still they are unable to stem the current of evidence which is sweeping away the Peter Funk reputation of the accused. The prosecution have already shown, by indisputable proof, that Gen. Howard purchased the ground where the Howard University now stands, and erected the building out of the funds appropriated by Congress for the Freedman's Bureau.

It is said that Gen. Thomas was Grant's most formidable rival for the Presidency in 1872, and that is the reason why Ulysses enjoyed his funeral so.

DIVES AND COL. MOORE, LAZARUS AND JOHN PAGE.

We have more news from John Page. John is reported to us as a man of good mind as well as character who would have been ashamed to speak, as Colonel Moore did, against telegraphing for Littlefield and Swepson to appear before the Bragg Committee. This speaks well for John; it speaks well for all the negroes of Chowan, if they threw Col. Moore overboard for his defence and vindication of the Ring.

We fear it was not high principle that threw Col. Moore overboard, if these words, reported as coming from John Page, be true. John said he would no longer look upon Col. Moore as Dives in the palace, while he, John, lay at the gate, "doctored by dogs and comforted with crumbs."

It is said, on the streets, that money will be raised to buy off John Page and James Harris, that Mr. Richard Badger may go to Congress and Col. Moore return to the Legislature. The Governor wrote John that the "integrity and success of his administration depended upon the return of Col. Moore." We think his administration is more dependent upon the success of Dr. Sloan's and Gen. Littlefield's management of State bonds.

We have also heard that $8,000 can be raised to buy off James Harris from Congress, but Jim is not now as much in want of money, as he was in the last campaign, and besides, Dewease has reported the place as worth $50,000. If James places such a high value upon the office, Major Smith may cease his efforts to get him off the track; he will find it as up-hill a business as leasing the Railroad. The Major has repeatedly said the white men of Johnston would not vote for Harris. Mr. Long, late member from Chatham, said there were five hundred Republicans in Chatham who would not vote for a negro. Old Mr. Burns is reported to us as greatly disgusted with his party. He ought to be, but it may be that Phillips and Badger will impart an odor sweet enough to keep the old man pleased with Friday Jones and Solomon Bragg.

When Moore, Clingman, Phillips, Hargrove, et al, show as much spirit as the negroes, and the negroes show as much as John Page, there will be a lively time in the Radical ranks. The white men will demand that the negroes lay at the "gate and be doctored by dogs," as heretofore; the negroes, being ten to one, will make the white men lay at the "gate" as they have done in the case of Col. Moore. The dogs licking his wounds will be soothing; but oh! how it will aggravate him to be trod on by John Page and laughed at by all the negroes, and have no sympathy from the whites.

CALUMNIATOR.

"A wicked thing, a wicked thing is a calumniator."

Our "beloved" Governor is a wholesale dealer in calumny. If evil speaking could give a man the black tongue, our "beloved" would have died of it long ago.

We are led into these reflections by a letter from Carthage, Moore county, from one of its most respectable citizens, and which appears in another column.

In the Standard, of last week, was the sworn evidence of Daniel Graham, furnished and published at the special instance of Governor Holden. This evidence of Graham's is now going the rounds in Radical papers; large numbers of the Standard containing it have been sent to the Capitol of the Empire, as we believe, by the Governor, or through his order.

The letter from Carthage is from one of the most respectable citizens of Moore county; it tells who Graham is. This wretch and thief has sworn, that A. A. McNeill, Clerk of the Superior Court, and some fifteen or twenty others, many of them the most respectable citizens of the county, have been guilty of murder, arson and the most horrid crimes.

The Governor is in possession of these facts; he takes no steps to arrest A. A. McNeill and others. He has them advertised in his organ as the perpetrators of horrid crimes; and for what? To make political capital for his party.

The publication of Graham's evidence shows the Governor to be a wicked man and a calumniator. If he believed his witness, Graham, he should have had the murderers arrested; if he did not believe him, he should not have given out for publication from the Executive office, such foul, false statements. It belongs eminently to Executive duty to see that the guilty be pursued and the innocent protected. If these respectable gentlemen are guilty, the Governor has been guilty of a gross dereliction of duty in not pursuing them; if they are innocent, he is a wicked calumniator.

The negroes of New Hanover, held a convention in Wilmington, on Wednesday last, and nominated A. H. Galloway, for the Senate, and Mabson, Price and Sampson for the House.

All the nominees are, we believe, colored men.

WHO BROKE THE PLATE?

The Public Treasurer gave as a reason to Dr Sloan, for not issuing the bonds for the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road, that the plate for engraving the bonds was broken. Where is that broken plate?

Dr. Sloan tells it, that Littlefield and the "Ring" were at work to prevent the issue of bonds, except to the Western North Carolina Railroad. The Treasurer delayed in the issue of his bonds, and finally said the plate was broken.

Now we have it from pretty good authority, that the bonds had been engraved under Col. Cowan's administration, and all that was necessary was to have them signed. How is this, Governor? How is this, Dave?

It is known that Littlefield and Swepson hurried out the bonds for their Road, and that they endeavored to delay and prevent the issue of bonds for other Roads. The idea was, the fewer the bonds the better their's would be.

Dr. Sloan's friends do not hesitate to say that the Public Treasurer was on such good terms with Littlefield and Swepson, as to give their road great advantages in the bond business over the Doctor's road.

Again, we ask, who broke the plate, and where are the pieces? Again, we ask, were the bonds engraved under Col. Cowan's administration, before the plate was broken?

From the Wilmington Journal.

NORTH CAROLINA "LOYALISTS."

Several leading politicians of this State have identified themselves with the Radicals, some of whom followed the fortunes of the Confederate flag with credit and honor even to Appomattox Court House and Greensboro'. It is wonderful with what unanimity they have become candidates for office and with what adaptability they have "accepted the situation," including the very lucrative salaries of their respective offices. And when we consider they have made all these terrible sacrifices for the sake of the "dear Union," how the hearts of their fellow citizens, even though a little disloyal, should warm towards them. Upon our word we actually know of North Carolinians who have permitted their convenient and controllable hearts to beat with mercantable loyalty even as low as one dollar a throb. Just think of it! Those who value such throbs as highly as they do drops of their life's blood are not probably prepared to fully estimate the terrible cost at which North Carolinians have been transformed into ranting and dishonest Radical politicians. Why, we have actually heard of a North Carolinian of gentle blood and a leading Radical office holder, who must regard "honor as a mere escutcheon," in a grave discussion in a parliamentary body, making political capital by trading the blood and honorable death of a noble son for claptrap and falsehood to win the momentary applause of epauletted soldiery, the sickly smiles of obsequious apostates and to "spilt the ears of the groundlings."

Holden's loyalty was nurtured by President Johnson in the then newly patented hot-house called Provisional Governorship, and it was sufficiently hardy to undergo safe transplanting under the direction of Congressional reconstruction. It has now become a full grown shrub.

Tod Caldwell, Colonel Harris and other North Carolina officials of the Executive department embraced Radicalism and their offices simultaneously.

Chief Justice Pearson found out he was a "patriot" about the time he thought North Carolina needed the continuance of his services as Chief Justice; and Justice Reade went into that party in his erratic wanderings, "going home." It is supposed by those who know the motives of his calculating disposition that there was more method than accident in his steps. Justice Rodman's conversion to Radicalism and to political and judicial positions succeeded hard upon each other. He followed the "Lost Cause" with a sorrowing heart to its honored grave, and then with indecent haste hurried to the false embraces of its murderers.

"The funeral baked meats,
Did coldly furnish forth the marriage tables."

Justice Settle has always been a political camp-follower. He follows no flag except as a spy or a plunderer. He could be convinced that Radicalism is wrong by the same means used to toil him into that party. Justice Dick tried hard to get position and failed until apostacy was more honored than ability.

We never heard of the Radical tendencies of Judges Pool, Jones, Watts, Russell, Henry, Cloud, Logan, Thomas and Cannon, or their legal attainments either, until their nomination and election to office.

John Pool embraced the tenets of the party and the Senatorship with the same regard to honor and decency with which he took the oath to support the Confederate government—for the purpose of embarrassing it. Colonel Dockery hid his Confederate uniform and became a "good Union man" when he found that it paid better than mourning over the loss of his slaves. Lash's politics, like every act of his life, smells of the shop. He made a shrewd calculation what per cent it would return and made the investment.

Swepson's, Sloan's and A. J. Jones' tracks to the Radical camp are easily traceable.—Their crimes have left some impression upon the minds of the people, but more upon the Treasury of the State.

Judge Cantwell sought for an office so quickly after experiencing a "change of heart" that ignorance of the orthodoxy of his politics caused his defeat. He has hid the stars of an honorably won and honorably sustained rank, and obscured the reputation of an intelligent lawyer in the filth and filthiness of a police court, and devotes his time and talents to the protection of the wounded dignity of colored Aldermen.

W. A. Moore, J. W. Holden and W. D. Jones expended their ire against "the flag" at Roanoke Island, and will spend the rest of their days in humble but profitable atonement for their harmless treason.

Mr. S. F. Phillips announces his Republicanism and his acceptance of a nomination in the same breath—"Thrift, thrift, Horatio."

Calvin Cowles, Phil. Hawkins, Parson Sinclair, and the other lesser lights, have each their "mess of pottage" as a receipt in full for their "birth rights."

Is there one North Carolinian who has gone into the Radical party and has kept free of the "flesh pots" sufficiently long to have the appearance of honesty? Has one assumed such a virtue? Even "rotating Dick" Badger had traded the ragged remnants of his political principles for a valuable consideration before his formal announcement in the Radical Convention, and Governor Holden, with all his shrewdness, never made a poorer bargain.

We wish some one of the North Carolinians who have falsely and cowardly deserted their fellows had kept up an appearance of unselfishness and real conviction.—We wish one at least had saluted his colors in their surrender. Their children and their children's children would have blessed them even for that pitiful benison.

For the Sentinel.

CARTHAGE, May 31st, 1870.

EDITOR OF SENTINEL:—It is reported, that the Daily Standard of recent date, contains a communication from Moore County, charging A. H. McNeill, Clerk of the Superior Court, and other good citizens of Moore, with being leaders of the burning and plundering parties in this county. As evidence of this a pretended affidavit of one Daniel Graham, a noted horse thief, is produced. This man Graham is, and has been for several months, skulking in the swamps of Moore County or somewhere else, being indicted for larceny, and believed to be guilty of all sorts of rascality, and supposed to be in full membership with the Governor's leaguers, and doubtless just the sort of witness for his purposes. The affidavit states, so we hear, that A. A. McPhail promised to furnish horses to a party to go to Raleigh to murder Holden. A few months ago this same Graham stole a horse from McPhail, was arrested and committed to Moore County jail; in a few days after, he was bailed by a member of the Governor's secret society. He is believed to have been engaged in burning houses, robbing &c. since being bailed. About a week ago, two very peaceable old men, uncles of A. H. McNeil, were cruelly murdered at their home in Cumberland County, and it is the prevailing opinion that Daniel A. Graham, and * * * * * * * did the bloody deed. The communication is a foul slander and a base falsehood, worthy only of its author and the paper that published it.

CITIZEN.

P. S. Fortunately the Standard has only two subscribers here, and I have not been able to see the communication alluded to. Should you think it proper to do so, you can publish the above. C.

A SECESSIONIST RADICAL.

The North Carolina papers are down upon Clingman like a thousand of bricks, now that he has gone over to the Radicals. They insinuate that he received fifteen thousand dollars for it.

It is not for us, not knowing the facts, to say whether the charge is true or not.—All we do know about Clingman, is that he is a very changeable politician, "everything by turns and nothing long." He was an old Henry Clay Whig; then a State's rights Calhoun Democrat; then of course a red-hot out and out Secessionist; and now he is a flaming Radical.

These changes in Clingman, or in any other mere politician, need not surprise us. A man who is very extreme on any subject is not to be trusted, and none should wonder at any course he may take. Some of these are impulsive and honest at the time they made their extravagant declarations; but in the mental constitution of such men there is often a "screw loose." They are too frequently, however, the very coolest calculators, and are "mad with a purpose." It will be always seen that these actors—these imposers upon the gullibility of their trusting and admiring fellow-citizens—have a keen eye to the main chance, and somehow manage to keep on the crest of the wave, whether of the sea of whiggery, democracy, or radicalism.

The Revolution is often called "the time that tried men's souls;" but in our humble opinion the events of the last few years have been a much more intense crucible.—Few are the politicians that have come out pure gold.

We may, however, be expecting too much from the tricky schemers of these degenerate days. We must not look for too much from the men who for the twenty years before the war were the "leaders" in Virginia and several other States of the South. For ourselves we never thought much of politicians who made their living by appealing to the passions of the people, and we have not been disappointed at their course during and since the war. The days of Macon and of George Loyall are gone forever; and we must never expect to see again such models of purity and disinterested patriotism.—Norfolk Journal.

WIRZ—SCRAPS OF HISTORY.—The New York World, in criticising Judge Black's defence of Stanton in the Galaxy, introduces the following incident:

"Nor is it amiss to state a fact not generally known, but susceptible of proof, that when, on the trial of Wirz, Judge Ould, the Confederate Commissioner of Exchange, came to Washington as a witness under subpœna to prove the facts we have stated, Stanton sent him word that if he did not return home at once his parole would be determined. He went away, and Wirz was hung."

To which we would add the additional fact, not generally known, that General Robert E. Lee and General Howell Cobb were also subpœnaed and ordered to Washington as witnesses for the accused, but were subsequently met en route by dispatches from the government ordering them not to come on. Gen. Cobb got as far as Savannah, and, receiving his dispatch, turned back. The prosecution had both these gentlemen rejected as witnesses on the ground that, having engaged in rebellion, they were personally infamous and not to be believed on oath.

We may also state as an interesting fact in this connection, that Gen Cobb, who was in command at Macon during the year 1864, had he been allowed to reach Washington, would have testified that upon receipt of a very large number of wounded Confederates from a recent battle, more than could be accommodated in Macon, he wrote to Andersonville to have a quantity of lumber that had been collected there sent up immediately, to be used in the construction of temporary hospitals. Wirz refused to let it go, alleging that he had been trying long and had procured it with great difficulty in order to shelter his prisoners.—We had this circumstance from Gen. Cobb's own lips.

Thus it was that witnesses for the defence were silenced by that bloodthirsty court, and poor Wirz, innocent though he was, sent to his last account. Stanton has gone to meet him before a higher tribunal, where no witnesses are wanted.—Savannah Republican.

A BEAUTIFUL REPLY.—A pious old man was one day walking to the sanctuary, with a New Testament in his hand, when a friend who met him said:

"Good morning, Mr. Price."

"Ah! good morning," replied he; "I was reading my Father's will as I walked along."

"Well, what has he left you?" said his friend.

"Why, he has bequeathed me a hundred fold more in this life; and in the world to come life everlasting."

It was a word in season; his Christian friend was in circumstances of affliction, but went home comforted.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.

Open May 15th, 1870.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysentery. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an aperient, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, surivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "ROCKBRIDGE ALUM." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the care of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and now and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary, CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value on policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of convert ng Policies into after the payment of 3 or more annual premiums.

☞ Believing, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income for life through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts; &c., &c.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The District Conservative Convention will be held in Franklinton, June 7th and 8th, to nominate candidates for Congress, and to make arrangements for the Congressional campaign.

SPEAKING AT HAYWOOD.—The Editor of the SENTINEL will, by invitation, address the people of Chatham, at Haywood, on the Chatham Railroad, on Friday, June 10th.

CITY MARKET.—Spring chickens 30 to 37½ cts; Butter 27½ to 30 cts per pound; Eggs 20 cts per dozen; Cabbage 12½ to 15 cts per head; Irish potatoes 75 cts per peck; Onions 25 cts per dozen; Strawberries 10 cts per quart; Green Peas 40 cts per peck.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—To-morrow, the Conservatives of this county will assemble in Convention, at the Court House, in this city, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the county in the District Convention, which meets at Franklinton on the 7th of June. We hope there will be a full turn-out of our county friends, and that none but reliable men and sound Conservatives will be entrusted with the duty of representing us on that occasion.

A telegram received here late yesterday afternoon from Goldsboro, announced the capture of Ransom Poscher, who shot his uncle, Ransom Harrison, in this city, night before last. We are glad to learn that Harrison's wounds are not so serious as first reported, though his condition is still regarded as critical.

SUNDAY MAGAZINE.—The June number of this periodical came to us this morning, presenting its usual attractive appearance, and keeping up in every particular, its reputation as a first class magazine.

NEW BOOK.—Our enterprising friend, Mr. J. A. Jones, Bookseller, has placed upon our table, a new book, "The Schoolmaster of Abbach," by Oertel. The book comprises four German stories, and has achieved a high reputation in literary circles in Europe. Its author, Oertel, under the nom de plume of "Van Horn," has delighted the literary world of Germany with his graceful and scholarly pen.—As soon as we have time to give the book a careful perusal, we will endeavor to speak more particularly as to its merits.

GRAND EXCURSION.—On Wednesday, 15th of June, a grand excursion to Baltimore and Norfolk will come off. Tickets from Raleigh to Baltimore and return can be purchased for $12; to Norfolk and return for $10; all tickets good for eight days. This is an excellent opportunity for a cheap and pleasant trip either to Baltimore or Norfolk.

We thank the Superintendent of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, Capt. A. B. Andrews, for the courtesy of a complimentary ticket.

We forgot to mention above that tickets for the excursion, can be secured at any station along the R. & G. R. R.

The Stockholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford R. R. held a meeting in Charlotte on Wednesday. The meeting was a large one, and the proceedings of an interesting character. We regret that our limited space prevent our giving them in full.

Chicken cholera is prevailing in Guilford county.

The Greensboro' market is abundantly supplied with honey.

The Conservatives of Jones county will hold their Convention, at Trenton, on the 18th of June.

On account of sickness, Judge Thomas, adjourned the special Court for Wayne, until next Tuesday.

The June number of "Good Words," which we received to day, is as entertaining and interesting as usual, and we greet it with a hearty welcome.

THE GREAT KENTUCKY ENTERPRISE.—Since the announcement of commissioners that the drawing will positively come off without any futher delay, on the day fixed, a great impetus has been given to the sale of tickets, and everybody seems to be rushing for them, totally regardless of expense; and we should suppose from present appearances, that nine tenths of our people were each one expecting to draw the tempting prizes offered. The enterprise is surely going to be a splendid success, and from the upright manner in which it is managed, we can truly say that we hope some of our citizens will win the capital prize of $150 000,00.

We take the following from the New York World, in relation to the decoration of the graves of federal soldiers at Arlington, on last Monday. We hope the extract will be carefully read by those of our people, who, in the kindness of their hearts, so readily joined our northern friends in observing the "national holiday." But we hope the perusal will not diminish their christian charity, or cause them to think harshly of the memories of those "men in blue," now sleeping in the cemetery at the eastern extremity of this city, and who came amongst us on an errand of love and mercy. We can afford to forget principle, murdered relatives, desolated homes and tyrannical exactions, when called upon to honor the memories of these christian heroes:

"The mean spirit of Radical spite inaugurated on Decoration Day last year against the graves of the Confederate dead, when United States marines were stationed around them to prevent the floral decoration of the same, was revived yesterday at the Arlington decoration even in a more offensive manner. There are eighteen Confederate officers and Confederate soldiers buried there whose resting places were conspicuously marked yesterday by several pasteboard signs in large letters of "Confederate Graves." One or two ladies and a gentleman, not heeding the warning seemingly conveyed in these pasteboard decorations, ventured to place their floral tributes on the mounds of earth that covered these rebel dead, but no sooner had they done so than their flowers were snatched therefrom by a committee of that political organization known as the Grand Army of the Republic, and they were warned not to repeat the act by these petty officials.

"There has been no order issued against it," said the gentleman who had placed the flowers there, "and I claim the right to put my own flowers on those graves."

"You shan't be allowed to do it, sir," was the fierce reply.

"There is a correspondent of the World here, and I shall see that this outrage gets into print in that paper."

"We don't care a damn for the World; it's a rebel paper, anyhow," was the answer to this.

The ladies and gentlemen were then threatened with arrest for an alleged attempt to create a disturbance, and thereupon withdrew. It is due to say that some of the more decent Union soldiers deprecated this unseemly exhibition.

One Southern lady, dressed in deep mourning, while passing a grave on the head-board of which was inscribed the name of her son over the word in glaring letters "rebel," quietly left a crown of roses on the green sod, and was passing on when the harsh voice of one of the committee gentlemen ordered her to take it away again or he would throw it among the crowd. The lady burst into tears, but was compelled to obey."

In a sentence of thirty-five words "that" can be grammatically inserted eighteen times, as follows: "He said that that that that that man said was not that that that that one should say, but that that that" that that man said was that "that" that that man should not say."

PROGRESS THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—It seems that Excelsior, is now the watchword of our popular Insurance Agt., P. F. Pescud Esq., who makes his bow to our readers in this afternoon's paper.

Mr. P. says that he has taken the Excelsior, in order to overcome the increasing competition from old and new Companies The new feature presented by the Excelsior, in attaching a cash valuation to all her policies, with which policy-holders may purchase annuity bonds and secure an income for life or a series of years, is indeed new, and must be popular.

We wish Mr. P. abundant success and refer the reader to his advertisement.

Three Requisities of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, there would not be doctors enough to attend them, nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz: a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eights of the many thousands who suffer from indisposition, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor is it necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's, Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise. This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a saporific, or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowles are regulated, the liver roused, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized. It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time; and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—"Cadet" Whittemore has been re-elected a member of Congress from South Carolina.

The President has nominated R. M. Wallace, collector of the 3rd S. C. district, vice his brother, A. S. Wallace, recently seated in Congress.

President Grant presented Spotted Tail with a fine pipe silver mouth box and a box of tobacco. Red Cloud was not present; he had a friendly interview with Spotted Tail this morning, and will, with his people, meet the Indian Commissioners and Secretary of the Interior in council to-morrow. Spotted Tail and his delegation had a conference to-day at the White House with the President and Secretary of War. Secretary Boutwell and Attorney General Hoar were present, but did not take part in the conference. The Indians reiterated the old story of their wrongs, their wants, and their desire for peace with the whites. The President made a speech, assuring them of the desire of the government to have peace, and told them that the whites were powerful and would compel it if necessary, but hoped for thoroughly amicable relations between the nations. Spotted Tail said that the Indians had kept their word, but the whites had not.

HOUSE.—The tax bill was resumed. There was a great diversity of opinion; many five minute speeches were made.

Schenck closed the discussion. He said the Committee had proposed to reduce the income tax by increasing the exemption to $1,500; which would be a reduction of nearly $6 000 000. His own opinion was, that that was about as much as could be safely done at this time, &c.

The previous question was moved and seconded, but by agreement, the vote on the sections relating to the income tax with amendments, was postponed until to-morrow.

Beck offered an amendment to the 44th section which amounts to taxing the interest on all government bonds 5 per cent.

On division, the speaker announced the vote to be 90 to 65.

Wilson demanded the yeas and nays, and said that this was taking United States bonds held abroad, and was to that extent repudiation.

On motion of Allison, the House adjourned by a vote of 93 to 52, amid much excitement.

SENATE.—Pressing appointments was resumed. A resolution to place the bill at the foot of the Calendar was defeated by 30 to 26.

Indian appropriations were considered up to the Executive session.

Harris' resolution regarding levees was withdrawn from the Committee on Commerce and referred to the Committee on Finance, with an order to report as early as possible.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—Forty cases of relapsing fever were removed from Bedford street to the hospital, and the shanties in that vicinity were torn down.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, June 2—The Democratic State Convention passed resolutions denouncing the tariff and internal revenue laws, and pronouncing the law for enforcing the 15th amendment unconstitutional.

The following nominations were made: Secretary of State, Wm. Searry of Cleaveland; Supreme Court Judge, R. Hardinson of London; Comptroller, John H Heaton of Belmont.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

92 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.
In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 the 6th; in 1865, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;
In 1869 it was the FIRST.
The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.
One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.
Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.
Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in the pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 20 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

"STRONG, LIBERAL, SAFE, AND OF ESTABLISHED REPUTATION. THE GLOBE OFFERS EVERY INDUCEMENT TO PERSONS DESIROUS OF MAKING PROVISION FOR THOSE WHOM THEY MAY LEAVE BEHIND."

PLINY FREEMAN, President.
LORING ANDREWS, Vice President.
J. A. HADENBURGH, 2d Vice President
H. C. FREEMAN, Secretary.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence.

H. H. GOODLOE, General Agent for N. C.
DR. R. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1869.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in proceeding it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agents. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of solidarity the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
